Global Outreach Working Group

Outreach Accomplishments
Current and future Outreach efforts to be showcased on April 23, 2009, include:

- The Global Briefing Booklet was created by members of the Outreach Working Group at the end of 2008 in anticipation of the imminent transition period, specifically to educate new Administration and Department leaders. However, the resource has proven invaluable as a concise primer on Global, containing an Initiative overview; listing of GAC-member agencies and representatives; highlighted resources and efforts; the Global Resolution (unanimously endorsed at the fall 2008 GAC meeting); and, in the introductory letter from GAC Chairman Robert Boehmer, specific ways in which the Global Initiative is already meeting top priorities of the new Administration. GAC members are encouraged to read Chairman Boehmer’s letter (pp. 2-3) as well as the Global overview on page 6; this revised “Global Card” now includes a “Bottom Line” section listing 4 key bullets to help communicate the value of the Initiative in the proverbial elevator setting – when one only has a few minutes to hit the key points.

Outreach Mission
The entire Global outreach and communication endeavor supports Global’s mission to facilitate broadscale sharing of justice and public safety information by promoting standards-based electronic information exchange, providing the justice community with timely, accurate, complete, and accessible information in a secure and trusted environment. “Awareness” is implicitly a Global strategic goal in support of this mission, because the best GAC resources are only as good as their utility to and use by the justice-interested community. Awareness is the first step in adoption of Global recommendations and, by extension, support for and promulgation of the Global Initiative. Outreach efforts are focused in two distinct (and sometimes overlapping) directions: promoting the good works of the Initiative to the larger justice community (“outreach”) and also ensuring that GAC participants are fully informed not only about Global activities but also about their roles and responsibilities as members of the Committee (“inreach”).

Spring 2009
About Global

The U.S. Department of Justice’s Global Justice Information Sharing Initiative (Global) serves as a Federal Advisory Committee to the U.S. Attorney General on critical justice information sharing initiatives. Global promotes standards-based electronic information exchange to provide justice and public safety communities with timely, accurate, complete, and accessible information in a secure and trusted environment. Global is administered by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs, Bureau of Justice Assistance.
